MEDICARE AND CHAMPUS PAYMENTS: A patient's signature requests that payment be made and authorizes releases of any information necessary to process the claim and certifies that the information provided is true, accurate and complete. In the case of a Medicare claim, the patient's signature authorizes any entity to release to Medicare medical and nonmedical information, including employment status, and whether the person has employer group health insurance, liability, no-fault, worker's compensation or other insurance which is responsible to pay for the services for which the Medicare claim is made. Sese. 42 CRF 411.24 (a). In Medicare assigned or CHAMPUS participation cases, the physician agrees to accept the charge, and the patient is responsible only for deductible, coinsurance and noncovered services. Coinsurance and the deductible are based upon the charge determination of the Medicare carrier or CHAMPUS fiscal intermediary as the full charge, determination of the Medicare carrier or CHAMPUS fiscal intermediary if this is less than the charge submitted, CHAMPUS is not a health insurance program but makes payment for health benefits provided through certain affiliations with the Uniformed Services.

NOTICE TO PATIENT ABOUT THE COLLECTION AND USE OF MEDICARE, CHAMPUS, FECA, AND BLACK LUNG INFORMATION (PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT)

We are authorized by HCFA, CHAMPUS and OWCP to ask you for information needed in the administration of the Medicare, CHAMPUS, FECA and Black Lung programs. Authority to collect information is in section 205 (a), 1862, 1872 and 1874 of the Social Security Act as amended, 42 CFR 411.24 (a) and 424.5 (a) (6), and 44 USC 3101; 41 CFR 101 et seq and 10 USC 1079 and 1086; 5 USC 8101 et seq; and 30 USC 901 et seq; 38 USC 613; E.O. 9397.

The information we obtain to complete claims under these programs is used to identify you and to determine your eligibility. It is also used to decide if the services and supplies you receive are covered by these programs and to insure that proper payment is made.

The information may also be given to other providers of services, carriers, intermediaries, medical review boards, health plans, and other organizations or Federal agencies, for the effective administration of Federal provisions that require other third party payers to pay primary to Federal program, and as otherwise necessary to administer these programs. For example, it may be necessary to disclose information about the benefits you have used to a hospital or doctor. Additional disclosures are made through routine uses for information contained in systems of records.

FOR CHAMPUS CLAIMS: PRINCIPLE PURPOSE(S): To evaluate eligibility for medical care provided by civilian sources and to issue payment upon establishment of eligibility and determination that the services/supplies received are authorized by law.

ROUTINE USE(S): Information from claims and related documents may be given to the Dept. of Veterans Affairs, the Dept. of Health and Human Services and/or the Dept. of Transportation consistent with their statutory administrative responsibilities under CHAMPUS/CHAMPVA; the Dept. of Justice for representation of the Secretary of Defense in civil actions; to the Internal Revenue Service, private collection agencies, and consumer reporting agencies in connection with recoupment claims; and to Congressional Offices in response to inquiries made at the request of the person to whom a record pertains. Appropriate disclosures may be made to other federal, state, local, foreign government agencies, private business entities and individual providers of care, on matters relating to entitlement, claims adjudication, fraud, program abuse, utilization review, quality assurance, peer review, program integrity, third-party liability, coordination of benefits, and civil and criminal litigation related to the operation of CHAMPUS.

DISCLOSURES: Voluntary; however, failure to provide information will result in delay in payment or may result in denial of claim. With the one exception discussed below, there are No penalties under these programs for refusing to supply information. However, failure to furnish information regarding the medical services rendered or the amount charged would prevent payment of claims under these programs. Failure to furnish any other information, such as name or claim number, would delay payment of the claim. Failure to provide medical information under FECA could be deemed an obstruction.

It is mandatory that you tell us if you know that another party is responsible for paying for your treatment. Section 11288 of the Social Security Act and 31 USC 3801-3812 provide penalties for withholding this information.

You should be aware that P.L. 100-503, the Computer Matching and Privacy Protection Act of 1988, permits the government to verify information by way of computer matches.

NON-COVERED ROUTINE SERVICES POLICY

Attention: Medicare, Blue Cross PMD, United Healthcare, Health Springs, and any other PPO or HMO which we accept.

As our patient, we want to provide you the best care possible. There may be certain routine services, that we feel are necessary for the maintenance of good health that are not covered by your insurance contract or that may be considered medically unnecessary. For example, we may order lab tests, Chest X-Ray, EKG or Injections that may not be covered by your contract. Let us reassure you that we will order only tests that we feel are necessary for your treatment and care. We will generally advise you if we anticipate a service that will not be covered.

I understand that some procedures done by my physician are not covered or may be considered unnecessary by my individual contract with Medicare, Blue Cross PMD, United Healthcare, Health Springs or other PPO, HMO; I accept the responsibility and agree to pay for services not covered by my contract.
